Audiobooks available at Oxford Health Libraries.

The library has recently received a large donation of audiobooks from Calibre Audio Library. All of the audiobooks are available on CD and there are a wide variety of titles, including fiction and autobiographies.

You can see the list of titles here and all items can also be found on the NHS Knowledge and Library Hub or on the SWIMS website. Please get in touch for more information, or if you would like to borrow any.

Coffee Connections

After a fantastic start to the year with our most popular Coffee Connection in February, we're excited to get back on track and reconnect!

Coffee Connections is your chance to connect with colleagues beyond job titles and departments, for a relaxed 20–30 minute chat - online or in person - whenever it suits you both.

Fiona Ann Sutherland,
Outreach Librarian

This round's theme: Improvement. Whether it's personal growth, professional development or service-wide innovation, we want to hear from you. From passion projects and weekend adventures to reflections on what brought you to the NHS, this is your space to talk about it.

Let's make the Trust feel a little smaller—and a lot more connected.

To sign up please email us at library.enquiries@oxfordhealth.nhs.uk.

Bookings close on Friday 29th August.

Two New Staff Book Clubs Launching Soon!

Abdul Saboor
Functional Skills Tutor

The Skills for Life team at Oxford Health is delighted to introduce two brand new book clubs designed to bring colleagues together through reading:

Global Readers Circle

A welcoming space for overseas staff and those building everyday English confidence.

 Relaxed discussions |  Monthly meetings |  Beginner-friendly books

Next-Level Reads

For intermediate readers (both UK and international staff) ready to explore deeper stories.

 Lively conversations |  Monthly meetups |  Skill-building focus

Launching late August/early September!

Whether you're looking to connect with colleagues, practise English, or simply enjoy great books, we'd love you to join.

More details coming soon – watch this space!

30-DAY TRIAL OF APA PsycTests

Oxford Health Libraries have set up a 30-day trial to access APA PsycTests, "A one-of-a-kind database of psychological tests and measures designed for use with social and behavioural science research."

If you would like to access APAPsycTests during the trial period, please follow this link <https://openathens.ovid.com> - an NHS Open Athens login is required.

For any enquiries, please email library.enquiries@oxfordhealth.nhs.uk.
