

'Wednesday at One' : An Autumn Conference Series for Learning Disability Services

Learning from LeDeR – the local and national perspectives and Positive Behaviour Support / Learning from Lockdown

All weekly meetings can be joined via this link: Join Microsoft Teams Meeting. Webinars will be recorded to share afterwards.

Every Wednesday from 4 November to 16 December | 1.00pm to 2.00pm

Date	Title   1 hour slots – 40 minute presentation + Q&A	Lead presenter
4 November	Promoting Healthy Life Styles   Annual Health Checks, HAP's, access to health screening. Avoiding obesity & constipation.	Aimee Skinner , Lead, LD Nurse City Team, Oxford Health
11 November	Health conditions experienced by people with LD as they grow older ['the deteriorating patient']   Understand how the ageing processes affects people with LD and the issues arising. How do we promote a long and healthy life, but also have regard to the persons quality of life?	Vicky Wareing , Lead, LD Nurse North Team, Oxford Health Naomi Reeder , Lead LD Nurse South Team, Oxford Health
18 November	Epilepsy   Recognising vulnerability issues in those with Epilepsy, aiming to prevent avoidable death and promote positive outcomes.	Jackie Roberts , Lead LD Epilepsy Specialist Nurse, Oxford University Hospital Trust
25 November	Personal reflections on lockdown   Practice learning/ reflection. Juggling life/ work balance. Lockdown diaries from people with a learning disability and families.	To be confirmed
2 December	Dysphagia &amp; Respiratory deaths   Exploring the differences between degenerative disease progression and avoidable issues. Effects of ageing, medication, dental hygiene. Considering current care and treatment pathways.	Simon Jones , LD Nurse Consultant, Oxford Health
9 December	End of Life Care planning   Understanding what current provision is in place to access end of life care support and how early conversations can be more consistently provided. Early onset Dementia and its impact.	Kirsten Prance , Associate Clinical Director, Oxford Health Dr Mary Miller , Consultant in Palliative Medicine Sharon Yates , Clinical Programme Manager; End of Life Care
16 December	Functional analysis   'Why does Mary do that?'. Changes in routine and their impact	Simon Jones, LD Nurse Consultant, Oxford Health