Understanding and supporting someone with personality disorder

Wednesday 21st September 2022

1.00pm– 3.30pm

Facilitator: Lauren Fuzi and Stuart Whitelaw, Therapists, Complex Needs Service

This workshop aims to provide an overview of 'personality disorders', exploring the underlying causes and the subsequent complex emotional difficulties which may contribute towards a diagnosis of a personality disorder. The latter half of the workshop will focus upon strategies and tips for friends and family members who are supporting someone who has a diagnosis of a personality disorder.

Understanding and supporting someone with PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder)

Thursday 27th October 2022

10.00am to 12.30pm

Facilitator: Laura Wade and Jessica Hilton, Clinical Psychologists

This workshop will explore the impact of trauma on the brain and body, and how this can lead to post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). We will think about ways of understanding and managing the symptoms of PTSD, the impact on families, and talk through some helpful guidelines for family members supporting loved ones.

Understanding and supporting someone with bipolar

Thursday 8th December 2022

10.00am to 12.30pm

Facilitator: Dr Rebecca McKnight, Consultant Psychiatrist

The workshop will think about what is bipolar (affective) disorder, the types of symptoms and experiences that patients with bipolar disorder may have and why they might have developed the illness. We will cover different treatments that are available and what you as family, friends or carer's can do at home to support someone with bipolar. We will touch on some specific topics that commonly occur such as links between bipolar disorder and illicit substances and self-harm/suicide. There will be time given throughout the session to ask questions and discuss any topics raised.

Please note: Carers' workshops will be held online using Microsoft Teams. There will be time allocated for breaks during the workshop.

To book a place

These workshops are provided for carers of service users who are currently under the care of our Oxfordshire Mental Health Teams.

Places are free of charge and are limited. If we are unable to offer you a place we will add you to the waiting list and contact you nearer the time to advise if one becomes available.

You can apply by emailing Diane.Hilson@oxfordhealth.nhs.uk with your name, telephone number and the course/s you would like to attend. Written email confirmation will be sent to you with joining instructions for the online session(s) you wish to attend.

In the event that you cannot attend please call or email Di Hilson as soon as possible so that your place can be allocated to someone on the waiting list.
