

Understanding Language // Guess the Object

Put the cards in a pile. Take turns to take a picture without showing it to the other players. One player describes the object and the other players have to guess what the object is from the description, e.g. "It's woolly and has four legs". You can get more pictures from catalogues or from the internet.

